Subject: Checking in re AFN decisions this morning

Hi all,

Just a super quick email with a check in on some decisions we made this morning. We wanted to run these by the group before going any wider. Please let us know asap if you are not comfortable with any of the decisions below as we will let the AFN elders know later today and start getting some messages out to the masses.

Decisions were:

- To run an online conference offering in October 2020. Sessions will be run throughout the month at different times and dates. We are not limited to a particular number of sessions.
- Call for expressions of interest for the online conference.
- People can book for the whole conference for $100 or a single session for $30. The whole conference will also give them recordings to all sessions
- Rough timetable – EOI's out in June, back by end of July, Program released in August, Registrations commence as soon as program is released
- Danielle to contact Bob and Carol to see if they'd like refunds for the conference fees paid. If not, they will be held for the next face to face conference (Shel happy to leave hers)
- To run a face to face conference 20-22 October 2021 in Brisbane at the Landing at Dockside
- Deposit currently held by Dockside to stay with the venue for the 2021 conference

Discussion was also held over whether we should keep the same theme for the 2020 online conference – I am – because you are. It was felt this morning that this is still very relevant and we could perhaps add a byline.

Let us know your thoughts. Look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Danielle Bolton
